

Restricted License Program

What is the Restricted License Program?

The Restricted License program is designed to assist those who have license stoppers for unpaid traffic fines but need to drive because (1) their position at work requires them to drive or (2) they have no alternative transportation to get to work.

The purpose of the Restricted License Program is to help these individuals negotiate a payment plan with the Court to pay off said unpaid traffic fines and in exchange, obtain a temporary restricted drivers' license. Obtaining a restricted drivers' license will help these individuals maintain gainful employment and have more opportunities for growth in their current employment, while working on paying off license stoppers.

How does it work?

Call to Apply for Services!

To qualify for the Restricted License Program, you must first speak with a Volunteer Legal Services Hawai'i ("Volunteer Legal") staff to see if your income qualifies you for the program.

After confirming qualification, Volunteer Legal will complete an intake application form and request the following documents:

-Copy of Government issued photo identification card (i.e. driver's license, state ID);

-Original certified letter of Driver License Status from the City and County of Honolulu DMV, dated within the last thirty (30) days. (Volunteer Legal may assist in requesting the letter for you from the DMV with your permission and signature);

-Original Traffic Abstract dated within the last thirty (30) days;

-Recent paystub;

-Recent rent receipt that includes your name, current address, rent amount and rent period;

-List of utilities/monthly expenses; and

-Letter from your employer, indicating the necessity for you to drive (optional).

If you choose to participate in the program, there is a $40 administrative fee.

Upon receiving and reviewing the required documents from you, Volunteer Legal will prepare the necessary court documents requesting your restricted license and proposing a payment plan to the court. You are responsible to pay the total balance of all court fines and fees associated with your tickets.

You must appear in court for a short hearing after the motion is filed. Volunteer Legal will assist in finding you a Pro Bono Attorney to represent you for this hearing only. If an attorney is not able to attend, you will be provided instructions and advice on how to proceed before your hearing.
